

Michael Gyarmathy

1000 Village Drive, College Station, TX 77840
mgyarmathy@tamu.edu | 832.641.7741

Education

Texas A&M University — College Station, TX
B.S. Computer Science — Minor in Psychology
Overall GPA: 3.8 / Major GPA: 4.0

Graduating May 2015

- » Focus in User Experience Design and Front-End Software Development
- » Recipient of the Bill Crane Distinguished Former Student Scholarship (2013-2014) and the Industry Affiliate Program (IAP) Scholarship (2012-2013)

Work Experience

Consultant Intern, Credera — Dallas, TX

Summer 2014

- » Implemented web technology solutions for clients using popular front-end Javascript frameworks like Angular.js and Knockout.js
- » Gained valuable interpersonal skills through face-to-face interactions with clients on a daily basis

Web Development Intern, Blackbaud — Austin, TX

Summer 2013

- » Developed a collection of dynamic donation form templates utilizing Blackbaud's RESTful web APIs
- » Learned the practices of Responsive Web Design and Progressive Enhancement (via Modernizr) in the process of implementing client solutions
- » Performed regression testing for Blackbaud's Luminate Q3 product release

Freelance Web Developer — College Station, TX

2012 - present

- » Established web presences to promote various organizations' visions and expand brand visibility
- » Utilized numerous Javascript libraries and CSS frameworks, such as JQuery and Twitter Bootstrap, to quickly build highly-interactive and compelling sites
- » Clients include: Texas A&M University (Aggies Commit), Beta Upsilon Chi Fraternity, and Wendie's Wish

Sports Camp Coach, T Bar M Camps — New Braunfels, TX

Summer 2012

- » Counseled 1st- to 6th-grade children in a summer camp setting
- » Coached and taught children the fundamentals of various sports

Leadership

Rush Chair, Beta Upsilon Chi Fraternity

Fall 2012

- » Planned and coordinated six rush week events for 150+ potential new members on a fixed budget
- » Responsible for communication between pledges and pledge leadership throughout Fall 2012 semester, utilizing social media for effective mass-communication

Counselor, Impact Retreat

Summer 2012

- » Provided incoming freshmen students mentoring and encouragement at the 4-day retreat and introduced them to the Christian community at Texas A&M

Skills

- » Extensive knowledge of HTML/CSS/Javascript, C++, and Java
- » Strong writing and communication abilities

Personal Interests

- » Playing various self-taught musical instruments: drum kit, piano, and guitar
- » Training and competing in distance races such as half marathons and 5Ks
- » Writing articles and blog posts on the topics of Faith, Personal Experiences, and American Culture